Unit 8

Going to a Restaurant

Peter:

Hi, remember me?

I'm Peter.

I'm Mike's friend.

I work in a restaurant.

I help clean up,
and sometimes I can be the waiter.

When you eat in a restaurant,
you have to be polite to the waiter.
You can't say: "I want to eat!"
Or: "Give me a hamburger!"

That's not polite.

You have to ask:

"Can I have a hamburger, please?"

Or:

"Can I have a cup of coffee, please?"

In my restaurant,
I will give you the menu.
In the menu,
you can see what we have.
We have hamburgers,
but also fish and chips
and pizza and salads.
Many things.

Peter (2)

Also many things to drink:
water, coke, beer, coffee.

And dessert!
Dessert is what you eat, last.
I always eat ice-cream for dessert.

At the end of the meal,
you ask for the bill:
"Can I have the bill, please?"
Then I give you the bill,
and you pay me.

And then I say:
"Thank you,
I hope you enjoyed your meal!"

So now you know all about my
restaurant.
We are closed on Mondays,
but we're open
on all other days of the week,

I hope to see you, soon!

Simon says:

... eat an apple!

... eat a pizza!

... drink a hamburger!

... drink your milk!

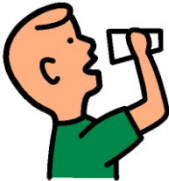

... drink an apple!

... eat an apple!

... drink your ice-cream!

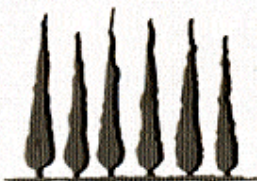

... drink your beer!

etc.
